

Print Date: 7/14/14

Course Objectives/Course Outline
Spokane Community College

Course Title: Ancient/Medieval Art

Prefix and Course Number: ART 108

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- Become familiar with foundational expressions of human thought and creativity
- Comprehend elements of tradition and change within disciplines of the humanities
- Make connections between the humanities disciplines
- Know the relationship of more than one humanities discipline to the larger intellectual community
- Gain increased understanding and appreciation of the human condition

Course Outline:

- I. Summarize and compare the basic concepts and theories of art history.
- II. Demonstrate an understanding of visual concepts using visual vocabulary
- III. Demonstrate an understanding of the process of interpreting content from form.
- IV. Observe and analyze works of individual artists within the major styles and periods.
- V. Recognize and identify significant works of art
- VI. Discuss the relationship between the art and the historical context in which it was made.
- VII. Evaluate the significance of the art during the period in which it was made and viewed.
- VIII. Be aware of our contemporary perspective and esthetic in viewing historical works.
- IX. Communicate your ideas to others.
- X. Take responsibility for your own learning.
- XI. use peer feedback and instructor criticism to improve learning.