

Print Date: 7/15/14

Course Objectives/Course Outline
Spokane Community College

Course Title: General Biology w/Lab

Prefix and Course Number: BIOL 105

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- Recognize the integration of biological concepts into daily living
- Relate biological principles common to all organisms.
- Understand the significance of biological principles to other fields of study
- Recognize the common relationships among scientific fields.
- Demonstrate skills in using laboratory equipment.

Course Outline

- I. Exams developed from:
 - A. Lectures
 - B. Texts
 - C. Discussions
 - D. Laboratory exercises
- II. Evaluations:
 - A. Laboratory Reports
 - B. Assignments