

Course Objectives/Course Outline
Spokane Community College

---

---

Course Title: Anatomy and Physiology II

Prefix and Course Number: BIOL 205

---

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- Demonstrate skills in using laboratory equipment.
- Recognize and use vocabulary specific to the human body and human health.
- Recognize the characteristics of the major tissue groups found in the human body and understand their functions.
- Recognize all the major organs and components of the Digestive System and understand the functions.
- Recognize the major organs and components of the Respiratory System and understand their functions.
- Recognize the major organs and components of the Urinary System and understand their functions.
- Recognize the major organs and components of the Endocrine System and understand their functions.
- Recognize the major organs and components of the Reproductive System and their functions.
- Recognize the major organs and vessel of the Cardiovascular System and understand their functions.
- Perform laboratory exercises related to the above course learning objectives, record observations, gather and analyze data.

Course Outline

- I. Exams developed from:
  - A. Lectures
  - B. Texts
  - C. Discussions
  - D. Laboratory exercises