

Print Date: 7/17/14

Course Objectives/Course Outline
Spokane Community College

Course Title: Introduction to Linux/Unix

Prefix and Course Number: CIS 206

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- Perform basic and advanced OS installation and configuration
- Create, modify, manage, and administrate files, file systems, and directories
- Perform system initialization, shutdown, reboot
- Manage processes, programs, and packages

Course Outline:

- I. Basic and advanced OS installation and configuration
- II. Create, modify and manage files and directories.
- III. Manage and administrate the file system
- IV. Perform system initialization
- V. Pipe and redirect files
- VI. Manage processes
- VII. Manage programs and packages