Course Objectives/Course Outline
Spokane Community College

Course Title: Advanced LINUX/UNIX
Prefix and Course Number: CIS 213

Course Learning Outcomes:
By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- Install and configure a server
- Configure and manage user interfaces and desktops
- System customization and management using the shell
- Manage administrative tasks
- Maintain essential system services
- Configure and maintain security administrative tasks
- Troubleshoot basic system issues

Course Outline:
I. Installation and configuration of basic servers
II. Configure and manage user interfaces and desktops
III. System customization and management using the shell
IV. Manage administrative tasks
V. Maintain essential system services
VI. Configure and maintain security administrative tasks
VII. Troubleshoot system issues