Course Objectives/Course Outline
Spokane Community College

Course Title:	Network Scripting
Prefix and Course Number:	CIS 234

Course Learning Outcomes:
By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

Describe the basic principles of network scripting tools and create basic configuration and management scripts using tools such as PowerShell and Python.

Course Outline

I. Describe the purpose of network scripting

II. Use network scripting tools such as PowerShell and Python to create and apply basic scripts

III. Describe and practice security principles when using scripting

IV. Locate, download, and manage pre-made scripts

V. Locate and describe websites and training resources for network scripting and automation