Course Objectives/Course Outline
Spokane Community College

Course Title: Advanced Techniques in Corrections Programming
Prefix and Course Number: CJ 225

Course Learning Outcomes:
By the end of this course, a student should be able to:
- Gain understanding of the main types of approaches utilized in developing corrections programming for institutions and probation and parole situations.
- Learn the importance of using programming to meet the needs of institutions, organizations and offenders
- Understand how to incorporate programming into institutions and organizations to reduce reoffending.

Course Outline:

I. Overview
- A. Developing a security mindset
- B. Security Information networks
- C. Principles of containment
- D. Prevention: balancing the basics
- E. Initial response for custody and support staff
- F. Introduction to facility routines
- G. Hostage survival