

Print Date: 7/21/14
Course Objectives/Course Outline
Spokane Community College

Course Title: Institutional Programming

Prefix and Course Number: CJ 230

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- Program(s) evaluation
- Issues related to personnel programs in corrections.
- Correctional programs are interpreted here in the broad sense, i.e., private, public, big, small, marginal programs.
- Programs which seem most effective

Course Outline:

- I. Overview
 - A. Institutional management and Programs
 - B. Challenges
 - C. External & internal constraints
 - D. Impact of heightened security
 - E. Classifying prisoners
 - F. Rehabilitative programs
 - G. Psychotherapeutic programs
 - H. Behavior therapy
 - I. Therapeutic communities (aka social therapy)
 - J. Vocational programs
 - K. Substance abuse programs
 - L. Industrial programs
 - M. Prison maintenance