

Course Objectives/Course Outline
Spokane Community College

Course Title: Fire Officer IB

Prefix and Course Number: FOD 103

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- Describe the fire officers' role in determining fire cause and the investigation process
- Describe the principles of emergency service communications and interagency operations
- Describe the fire officer's role with life safety during emergency operations
- Describe the process for developing pre-incident strategic and tactical action plans

Course Outline:

- I. The Fire Officer's Role in Fire Cause Determination
 - A. Operation and Investigative Issues
 - B. Emergency Services Operations
- II. Emergency Services Operations
 - A. Communications
 - B. Networking with Other Agencies
- III. Fire Officers' Role in Life Safety
 - A. Development and Application of the Incident Management System (IMS)
 - B. Command Staff Functions