

Course Objectives/Course Outline
Spokane Community College

Course Title: Fire Service Instructor II

Prefix and Course Number: FOD 133

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- Examine and compare planning models and process for developing instructional programs
 - Analyze a group's needs and develop a program based on need analysis
 - Discuss the purpose, components and possible formats of a lesson plan and use them to develop a lesson plan
 - Deliver a presentation from a prepared lesson plan and participate in a critique
 - Create examples of written and skills performance tests and evaluate their effectiveness in measuring lesson objectives

Course Outline:

- I. Planning Models for Developing Instructional Programs
 - A. Comparing Models
 - B. Examining Processes
- II. Developing Programs
 - A. Analyzing Needs
 - B. Developing Lesson Planns
- III. Presentations
 - A. Delivering a Prepared Lesson Plan
 - B. Create Examples of Written and Skills Performance Tests