

Course Objectives/Course Outline
Spokane Community College

Course Title: Fire Officer IIA

Prefix and Course Number: FOD 201

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- Describe the relationship between government agencies and the fire service
- Describe the application of effective report writing skills to fire service communications
- Describe the fire officer's role in human resource management maximizing personnel performance
- Identify the technology systems commonly used for information management
- Describe the fire officer's role in fire and life safety public education

Course Outline:

- I. Government Agencies
 - A. Influence
 - B. Input
- II. Effective Report Writing
 - A. Communications
 - B. Details
- III. Fire and Life Safety
 - A. Public Education
 - B. Injury Prevention