

Course Objectives/Course Outline
Spokane Community College

Course Title: Fire Officer IIB

Prefix and Course Number: FOD 203

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- Describe the fire officer's role in conduction fire inspections
- Identify fire hazards and address violations
- Describe the strategic planning process for supervising multi-unit response systems
- Describe the planning process as it applies to pre-incident planning and resource deployment
- Apply the principles of strategy and tactics during a series of simulated incidents

Course Outline:

- I. Fire Officer's Role in Conduction Inspections
 - A. Identifying Hazards
 - B. Addressing Violations
 - C. Determining Origin and Preliminary Cause
- II. Supervising Multi-unit Response Operations
 - A. Strategic Planning
 - B. Pre-incident Planning and Resource Deployment
- III. Simulated Incidents
 - A. Applying Principles of Strategy
 - B. Tactics to Tabletop Scenarios