Course Objectives/Course Outline
Spokane Community College

Course Title: Incident Management – Multi-Company Operations
Prefix and Course Number: FOD 210

Course Learning Outcomes:
By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- Identify the Incident Managements System components and operating principles
- Describe the procedures associated with incident scene safety
- Describe the procedures of maintaining personnel accountability
- Describe the elements of pre-incident planning
- Describe the procedures for managing resource allocation during expanded incidents
- Describe the procedures for managing effective emergency scene communications
- Apply the principles of managing expanded operations during a series of scenarios

Course Outline:

I.   Incident Management Systems
        A. Components and Operating Principles
        B. Incident Scene Safety
II.   Personnel Accountability
        A. Procedures
        B. Pre-incident Planning
III.   Communications
        A. Managing Effective Emergency Scene Communications
        B. Applying Principles of Managing Expanded Operations