

Print Date: 3/8/21

Course Objectives/Course Outline
Spokane Community College

Course Title: World Regional Geography
Prefix and Course Number: GEOG& 102 (formerly GEOG 230)

Course Learning Outcomes:
By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- Understand the world and its distinct areas.

Course Outline:

- I. Global Habitation
 - A. Distinct character of individual areas
 - B. Universal patterns and linkages
- II. Geographic Problems
 - A. World impact
 - B. Cross-cultural relationships
 - C. Understanding other cultures
- III. Geographic Reciprocal Relationships between:
 - A. Humanity and landscapes
- IV. Geographic/Geologic tools and research:
 - A. Maps
 - B. Charts
 - C. Graphs
 - D. Research Methods
- V. Countries of the World:
 - A. Physical features
 - B. Geography
 - C. Cultural
 - D. Resource base
 - E. Political foundations
 - F. International relationships