Course Objectives/Course Outline
Spokane Community College

Course Title: Health Technology Environment and Security
Prefix and Course Number: HIM 220

Course Learning Outcomes:
By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- This course gives an overview of the healthcare environment, various health IT applications, and associated privacy and security policies and compliance.
- It focuses on health information management systems as well as applications that connect into system, and on the flow and transfer of data throughout the healthcare system.

Course Outline

I. Health Technology Environment
II. Health IT Applications
III. Electronic Health and medical Records
IV. Clinical and Financial Applications
V. Consumer Health Informatics
VI. Systems Architecture and Components
VII. Healthcare Data Exchange and Standards
VIII. Privacy and Security Policies and Compliance
IX. Security Risk Assessment and Audits
X. Data and Systems Security management
XI. Disaster Recovery and Business Continuity