

Course Objectives/Course Outline
Spokane Community College

Course Title: Acute Coronary Syndrome

Prefix and Course Number: ICT 116

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- Describe atherosclerosis pathophysiology as it relates to acute presentations.

Course Outline:

- I. Pathophysiology of atherosclerosis.
- II. The stable versus the unstable patient.
- III. Vulnerable plaque types.
- IV. STEMI versus NSTEMI patient presentations.
- V. The national door to balloon initiative.
- VI. 12 lead EKG recognition of the signs of ischemia/infarct patterns.