

Course Objectives/Course Outline
Spokane Community College

Course Title: Advanced Practices/Management

Prefix and Course Number: ICT 224

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- Describe the various left ventricular support devices in use today.
- Define the role of the cardiovascular technologist in the cardiac surgery department.
- Define the operational structure of these health care facility models:
 - For profit
 - Not for profit hospitals
 - Private physician laboratories
- Defined various models of a hospital chain of command

Course Outline:

- I. Left ventricular assist devices
- II. Support of cardiovascular surgery.
- III. Define:
 1. Operational structure of the health care facility.
 2. For profit hospitals
 3. Not-for-profit hospitals
 4. Private physician laboratory management models
 5. Hospital chain of command
 6. Your success strategy for working in each environment