

Print Date: 8/8/14

Course Objectives/Course Outline
Spokane Community College

Course Title: Cath Lab Clinical IV
Prefix and Course Number: ICT 235

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- This is the capstone clinical for the program. The student should become proficient at an entry level for the various procedures and roles in the cardiac cath lab. Be prepared to move to an out-of-town clinical site for this rotation. Sit for and pass the national RCIS exam.

Course Outline:

- I. Invasive Clinical Rotation
- II. Competency Check-Off
- III. Clinical Evaluation
- IV. Sit for National Registry to earn the credentials: RCIS
- V. Registered Cardiovascular Invasive Specialist