

Course Objectives/Course Outline
Spokane Community College

Course Title: Trial Preparation and Procedures

Prefix and Course Number: LA 225

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- Explain the principles civil litigation
- Use analytical framework for decision-making, evaluate a variety of fact patterns to identify issues and causes of action to support the practice of an attorney
- Discuss issues involving ethics and social responsibility
- Draft basic litigation instruments

Course Outline:

- I. Introduction
 - A. Civil procedures
 - B. Civil preparation of trial materials
 - C. Application to court rules
 - D. Pretrial preparation