

Course Objectives/Course Outline
Spokane Community College

Course Title: Clinical Coding

Prefix and Course Number: MSEC 221

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- Demonstrate the ability to correctly assign CPT, HCPCS and ICD-CM codes to more complex Evaluation and Management services and supplies; and abstract information to assign the correct codes to operative reports.

Course Outline:

- I. Coding and auditing Evaluation and Management services
- II. Abstracting information and assigning procedure, supply, and diagnosis codes for Operative Reports for the following systems:
 - A. Integumentary system
 - B. Musculoskeletal system
 - C. Respiratory system
 - D. Cardiovascular system
 - E. Urinary system
 - F. Male genital system
 - G. Female genital system
 - H. Maternity and Delivery procedures
 - I. Nervous system
 - J. Eye and ocular adnexa procedures
 - K. Ear procedures
- III. Correctly assign procedure codes for anesthesia services
- IV. Correctly assign HCPCS National Level II codes for medical supplies and medications