

Spokane Community College

Course Title: PSYC 106/Psychosocial Issues in Healthcare

Prefix and Course Number: NURS 106

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- Examine the environmental and physical determinants of health and illness within the context of healthcare
- Explore how socioeconomic status (SES) influences healthcare outcomes in various communities
- Explore the role of diversity in assessment, health promotion and patient education

Course Outline:

- I. Broad definitions and foundations
- II. Global health and healthy people 2020
- III. Health promotion, disease prevention, and risk reduction
- IV. Environmental determinants of health
- V. Physical determinants of health