

Spokane Community College

Course Title: PSYC 113/Psychosocial Issues in Healthcare II

Prefix and Course Number: NURS 113/PSYC 113

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- Examine the social and psychological determinants of health and illness within the context of healthcare.
- Examine the spiritual and cultural determinants of health and illness within the context of healthcare.
- Examine health promotion, patient education, and disease prevention across the lifespan.
- Explore how socioeconomic status influences healthcare outcomes in various communities.
- Examine the spiritual and cultural determinants of health and illness within the context of healthcare.

Course Outline:

- I. Cultural Determinants of Health
- II. Social Determinants of Health
- III. Spiritual Determinants of Health
- IV. Psychological Determinants of Health
- V. Determinants of Health and Illness across the Lifespan
- VI. Working with Vulnerable Populations