

Spokane Community College

---

---

Course Title: Application of Nursing Care of the Critically Ill Patient

Prefix and Course Number: NURS 206

---

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- Evaluate the pathophysiology of complex, multisystem disease processes to organize and priorities care for a group of critically ill patients in a critical or acute care hospital setting.
- Implement pharmacological interventions in the care of complex, multisystem disease process for critically ill patients in a critical or acute care hospital setting.
- Integrate principles of patient education in assessing and responding to the learning needs of critically ill patients and their families.

Course Outline:

- I. Oxygenation
- II. Perfusion
- III. Acid Base Balance
- IV. Immunity
- V. Infection
- VI. Tissue Integrity