

Spokane Community College

Course Title: Leadership Principles in Nursing

Prefix and Course Number: NURS 209

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- Evaluate leadership and management theories/skills as they apply to nursing practice
- Anticipate the impact of healthcare system changes as it affects nursing practice
- Investigate the ongoing changes of nursing roles within the short-term and long-term job market changes
- Develop leadership techniques that respect the inherent dignity of all clients, colleagues, and families
- Critique effective interpersonal communication techniques within a leadership role which will enhance professional collaboration

Course Outline:

- I. Accountability
- II. Collaboration