

Course Objectives/Course Outline
Spokane Community College

Course Title: GI and Skull Review

Prefix and Course Number: RAD 225

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- Demonstrate positioning and image evaluation of the GI system
- Demonstrate positioning and image evaluation of the skull

Course Outline:

- I. Positioning and Imaging of the GI System
 - A. Upper Gastric Intestinal
 - B. Small Bowel Follow-through
 - C. Barium Enemas
- II. Positioning and Imaging of the Skull
 - A. Skull Series
 - B. Facial Bones
 - C. Mandible
 - D. Orbits
 - E. Sinuses