

Course Objectives/Course Outline
Spokane Community College

Course Title: Review and Registry Preparation

Prefix and Course Number: RAD 237

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- Define medical terms
- Demonstrate communications skills
- Demonstrate correct positioning for various modalities
- Evaluate a variety of medical imaging techniques
- Complete the simulated registry exam with a competency of 75% or above

Course Outline:

- I. Review of Medical Terms
- II. Review of Patient Care I, II
- III. Review of Radiograph Positioning
- IV. Review of Fuch's Radiographic Principles
- V. Review of Radiation Physics
- VI. Review of Radiation Biology and Protection
- VII. Review of Radiation Pathology