

Print Date: 7/31/14

Course Objectives/Course Outline
Spokane Community College

Course Title: Hydrologic Field Projects

Prefix and Course Number: WATER 232

Course Learning Outcomes:

By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- Describe processes, characteristics and functions of stream corridors
- Differentiate between disturbances affecting stream corridors
- Apply restoration principles
- Identify element of restoration design
- Implement restoration projects

Course Outline: