

Spokane Falls Community College
COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Prefix and Course Number:	BIOL&241
Course Title:	Anatomy and Physiology I
Version Date: mm/dd/yyyy	01.14.21

Course Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:

1. Demonstrate skill in using laboratory equipment.
2. Demonstrate recognition of and use vocabulary specific to the human body and human health.
3. Demonstrate recognition of the characteristics of major cells, tissues, organization, and structure of the human body, and understand their function.
4. Demonstrate recognition of all the bones, muscles, nervous system parts and organs, the components and function of special sensory apparatus and understand their function and role in physiology.
5. Demonstrate understanding of laboratory exercises related to the organ systems, record observations, gather and analyze data.
6. Demonstrate understanding of the interrelated nature of all organ systems and their role in maintaining whole body homeostasis.