

Spokane Falls Community College
COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Prefix and Course Number: CMST& 220
Course Title: Public Speaking
Version Date: 04/29/2019

Course Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:

1. Effectively analyze and adapt to relevant audience demographic, attitudinal and situational attributes in relationship to topic selection, development, and delivery of speeches for a variety of purposes.
2. Ethically articulate ideas in speeches using effective verbal, vocal, and visual strategies that are rhetorically sensitive and demonstrate a concern for the effect of the expression on the audience.
3. Identify, access, organize, summarize, evaluate and analyze relevance of researched information from a variety of valid sources to be used in speeches.
4. Plan, organize, and create an effective preparation outline for the purpose of rehearsal and/or delivery.
5. Competently argue a well supported position in a persuasive speech, using appropriate persuasive structure and strategies.