

Spokane Falls Community College
COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Prefix and Course Number:	CS223
Course Title:	Programming for IT
Version Date:	01/15/2021

Course Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:

1. Apply programming processes within the programming language environment.
2. Create programs using a widely accepted programming language and tools.
3. Apply the basic concepts of object-oriented programming, modularity, and structured code.
4. Apply logical and critical thinking skills to solve problems.
5. Explain conclusions and evaluate or critique self and others.
6. Apply appropriate programming style guides.