

Spokane Falls Community College
COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Prefix and Course Number:	ENGL& 112
Course Title:	Introduction to Fiction
Version Date:	03/25/2021

Course Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:

1. Use the terminology of literary analysis, such as character, plot, theme, etc. to make valid, evidence-based interpretations of literary works.
2. Describe the variety of stylistic choices that fiction writers make within subgenres and how form influences meaning.
3. Employ multiple theoretical perspectives to aid in one's understanding and appreciation of literary works.
4. Use texts to discuss unfamiliar and diverse cultures, experiences, and points of view.
5. Analyze cross-cultural, social, economic, and political values expressed through fiction.