Course Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:

1. Use specialized language to discuss poetry and fiction.
2. Demonstrate familiarity with traditional and contemporary forms of poetry and short fiction to emulate them or diverge from them in their own writing.
3. Write original poems and an original short story, or parts of stories, that demonstrate awareness of language, content, and form.
4. Support classmates by providing meaningful and helpful feedback during writing workshops.
5. Revise an original poem or short story in progress in ways that improve the poem or story.
6. Assemble a portfolio of original poetry and fiction.
