

SPOKANE FALLS COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Course Learning Objectives Student Learning Outcomes

Course Title: Individualized Study Skills
Prefix and Course Number: ENGL 093

Last Modified: W18

Course Learning Objectives

- I. Taking responsibility for your learning
 - A. Strategies to identify and prioritize choices.
 - B. Methods for recognizing and surmounting academic and personal obstacles to learning
 - C. Approaches to working cooperatively and independently.

- II. The value of communication
 - A. How to observe, read, and listen critically with openness, understanding and respect.
 - B. How to evaluate the origin and purposes of messages.
 - C. How to organize information to develop/support ideas.

- III. Learning Strategies for various learning situations
 - A. How to apply strategies from this course to actual learning situations.
 - B. How to self-assess your learning process
 - C. The use of meta-cognition

Student Learning Outcomes

By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

1. Identify appropriate learning strategies for various learning situations.
2. Apply this knowledge to actual learning situations.
3. Self-assess the quality of the application of the strategies.
4. Write or speak meta-cognitive self-reflections describing reasons for choices in applying learning strategies.
5. Independently complete assignments following instructions given.