

Spokane Falls Community College
COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Prefix and Course Number: FILM 141
Course Title: Introduction to Film
Version Date: 05/10/2018

Course Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:

1. Describe how the unique narrative and technical language of cinema communicates.
2. Describe techniques used in capturing the shot, editing, and the application of sound communicates meaning of the image to the viewer.
3. Describe the elements of Hollywood narrative style.
4. Explain the differences in film narrative and technical style in genre Hollywood productions.
5. Describe independent cinema that is outside the mainstream of Hollywood style.
6. Evaluate individual filmmakers' films from the silent era to today's productions.
7. Analyze a specific director's personal vision in narrative content and cinematic techniques.