

Spokane Falls Community College
COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Prefix and Course Number: FILM 222
Course Title: American Film Classics
Version Date: 04/12/2018

Course Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:

1. Articulate the evolution of American film from its birth in the late 19th century to the present.
2. Describe the aspects of film as business and as art in the U. S.
3. Illustrate how specific films have reflected and influenced their respective eras of American culture.
4. Defend contributions of exemplary films and filmmakers to film art and industry.
5. State and support a position on the critical and/or aesthetic merits of numerous American films.