

HS 131

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Demonstrate skills in communicating with classmates and service providers.
2. Effectively communicate discoveries, questions, and ideas with classmates and community leaders.
3. Assume responsibility for sharing information with the class, and demonstrating support and respect for classmates.
4. Attendance at class promptly and consistently.
5. Assist students who are less skilled and you will ask for assistance from students who are more skilled in any area that you need assistance.
6. Reach beyond a familiar comfort zone and develop new skills that demand intervention and critical thinking in the human service delivery system.
7. Recognize the impact of cultural experiences intervention among differing worldviews.

COURSE OUTLINE

