

INTDS 281

Upon completing this course, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate proficiency in programming for various larger scale commercial and public spaces.
 - Determine project objectives.
 - Determine functions of spaces being designed.
 - Determine special requirements of the client.
 - Recognize human, physical and financial resources and limitations.
- Analyze multiple commercial spacial relationships.
 - Complete adjacency and flow charts.
- Research, review and apply relevant building code requirements.
- Formulate preliminary and final design directions/concepts: philosophy, character, aesthetic goals.
- Research and discuss the psychological impact of color regarding project environments, client response and aesthetic expressions.
- Prepare contract documents and presentation drawings to include:
 - Working/design drawings.
 - Specifications for furniture and equipment.
 - Reflected ceiling plans.
 - Perspective drawings.
 - Appropriate commercial furniture, finishes and materials.
- Organize a design project and prepare a comprehensive design proposal for various commercial clients.
- Confidently present ideas and solutions to clients in a professional manner.

COURSE OUTLINE

