

INTDS 282

Upon completing this course, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate proficiency in programming for various larger scale commercial and public spaces.
  - a. Determine project objectives.
  - b. Determine functions of spaces being designed.
  - c. Determine special requirements of the client.
  - d. Recognize human, physical and financial resources and limitations.
2. Analyze multiple commercial spacial relationships.
  - a. Complete adjacency and flow charts.
3. Research, review and apply relevant building code requirements.
4. Formulate preliminary and final design directions/concepts: philosophy, character, aesthetic goals.
5. Research and discuss other cultures regarding project environments and aesthetic expressions.
6. Prepare contract documents and presentation drawings to include:
  - b. Working/design drawings.
  - c. Specifications for furniture and equipment.
  - d. Perspective drawings.
7. Organize a design project and prepare a comprehensive design proposal for various commercial clients.
8. Confidently present ideas and solutions to clients in a professional manner.

COURSE OUTLINE

