

Spokane Falls Community College
COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Prefix and Course Number:	LMLIB 100
Course Title:	Introduction to Library Organizations and Careers
Version Date:	01/29/2021

Course Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:

1. Articulate professional values and describe the value of libraries in society, or in communities or as part of an educational or cultural institution.
2. Identify an individual career or educational path in relation to a library or allied services.
3. Explain the responsibilities and relationships of library functional areas and explain the skills needed to support library operations and cooperation.