

Spokane Falls Community College
COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Prefix and Course Number:	LMLIB 115
Course Title:	Library Organization and Collections
Version Date:	01/29/2021

Course Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:

1. Explain the importance of collection development policies in relation to library collections and communities served.
2. Describe collection management best practices procedures in conjunction with collections arrangement and the impact on library operations and services.
3. Identify how content is distributed to libraries and the tools and methods used to evaluate collection content.