

MUSC 239

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Study and rehearse choral literature.
2. Prepare for performance a program of selected secular and sacred choral music.
3. Perform in public selected choral pieces.
4. Learn and develop fundamental choral skills as they relate to the performance of different styles of choral music.
5. Learn about and develop vocal abilities as required to sing the different styles and periods of choral literature.
6. Improve the overall musicianship of each choral member as it relates to reading and performing choral music.

COURSE OUTLINE

