

Spokane Falls Community College
COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Prefix and Course Number: OTA 111
Course Title: Activity Analysis
Version Date: 08/31/2019

Course Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:

1. Define task analysis (Activity Analysis) in areas of occupation, performance skills, performance patterns, activity demands, environments and client's factors to implement intervention plans.
2. Relate how to grade and adapt the environment, tools, materials, occupation to reflect the changing needs of the client and sociocultural context.
3. Show how the Occupational Therapy Practice Framework can contribute to analyzing activities and influencing the clients occupational performance.
4. Define Occupations to include: activities of daily living, instrumental activities of daily living, rest and sleep, education, work, play, leisure and social participation as defined by the Occupational Therapy Practice Framework.
5. Show how occupational therapy practitioners design and teach a therapeutic activity understanding cultural differences in therapy implementation.