

Spokane Falls Community College
COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Prefix and Course Number:	OTA 231
Course Title:	Occupational Performance and Aging - Lab
Version Date:	3/2/2020

Course Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of physiological, psychological, and sociocultural changes that accompany the aging process.
2. Demonstrate the role of the OTA in the following areas of assessment and intervention:
 - a. Home modification
 - b. Community mobility
 - c. Orthotic devices
 - d. Feeding and eating performance
 - e. Environmental modifications
 - f. Aging In Place
 - g. Community and legal protection of the aging adult
3. Show changes in occupational performance related to disabling conditions and functional changes associated with the aging process according to the occupational practice framework.
4. Demonstrate conditions, assessment, intervention, adaptation, and education with the following diagnosis:
 - a. Cardio/Pulmonary
 - b. Arthritis
 - c. Sensory – low vision/ hearing loss/touch
 - d. Dementia
 - e. Contracture management
 - f. Incontinence
 - g. Dysphagia
 - h. Orthopedics
 - i. Cognitive diagnosis
5. Show Caregiver education and support
6. Interpret understanding of medication complexity and compliance for the aging.
7. Relate the role of interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary teams in provisions of care for persons in aging process.