

Spokane Falls Community College
COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Prefix and Course Number:	OTA 232
Course Title:	Group and Interpersonal Relationships Lab
Version Date:	3/2/2020

Course Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:

1. Interpret interpersonal personality traits that effect:
 - a. communication skills in personal and clinical interactions
 - b. biases/culture understanding
 - c. interview process
 - d. conflict resolution
 - e. giving and receiving feedback
2. Demonstrate the needed components to develop a comprehensive group treatment protocol in large and small groups.
3. Demonstrate the group membership skills including didactic, small and large group skills.
4. Demonstrate conflict resolution and skills in effective communication in clinical interactions.
5. Compare and Contrast stages of group process and group interactions.
6. Share reflections and analyses of interpersonal skills used during interviewing and group processing with classmates and instructors.