NOTE:
Some institutions have requirements for admission to the major and the university that go beyond those specified above which students can meet by careful selection of an additional elective course. Students should work with a counselor or academic advisor for further guidance specific to their goals.

Seattle University requires an additional course in precalculus (MATH& 141). UW Seattle requires an additional course in precalculus (MATH& 141) or logic (PHIL& 120).
