Course Title: Introduction to Humanities
Prefix and Course Number: HUM& 101
Last Update: 1/26/2021

Course Learning Outcomes:
By the end of this course, a student should be able to:

- Utilize perspectives in the humanities to articulate human values, experience, community,
- identity, or meaning.
- Respond to diverse creative works and community cultural events using appropriate discipline-specific terminology.
- Analyze creative works based on their historical or cultural context.
- Interpret diverse works within the Humanities from various perspectives including the creator’s.

Course Outline
I. Historical Influences:
   A. Political
   B. Cultural
   C. Scientific Art values
II. Creative Artist
   A. Creative process
   B. Creative problems
III. Art as it relates to the world
IV. Art Forms
   A. Basic Elements
   B. Principles
V. Art Appreciation
   A. Seeing
   B. Interpreting
   C. Evaluating
VI. Humanities Activities and Experiences
VII. Developing a lifelong interest in the arts